

The Dove of Geneva

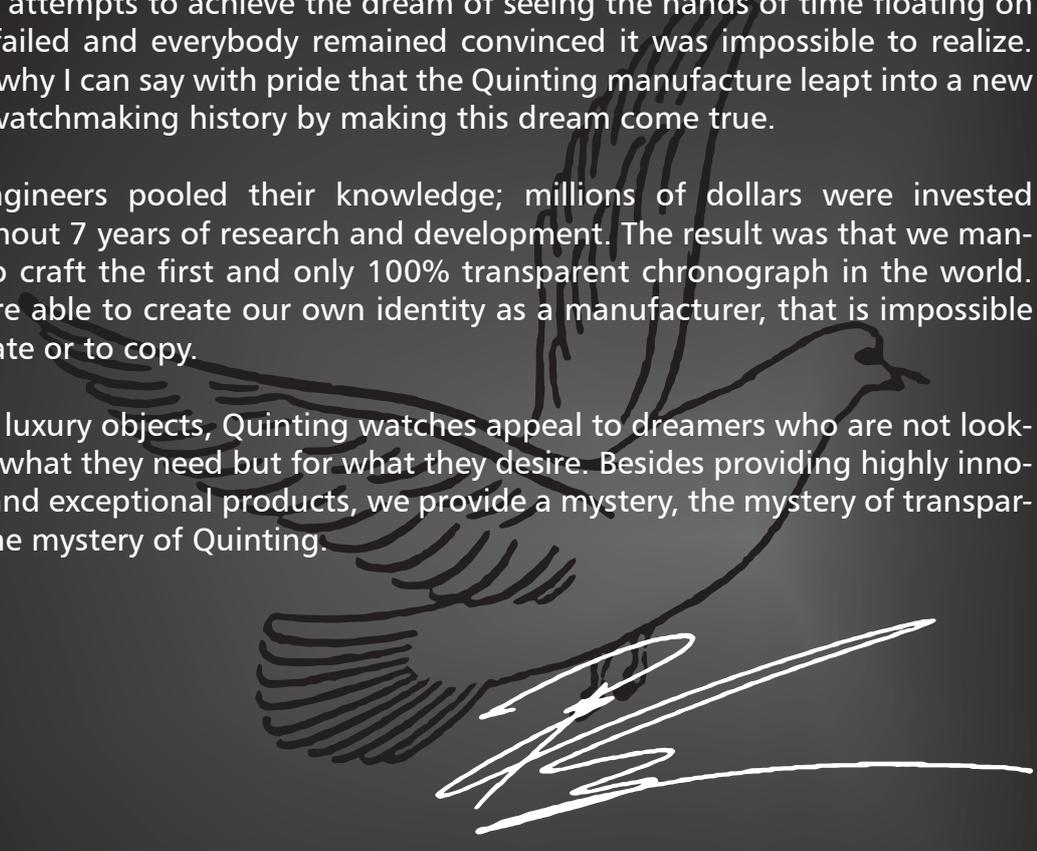

A message from Pascal Berclaz

The idea of designing a completely transparent watch has occupied the greatest minds in the watchmaking profession for more than 100 years. All attempts to achieve the dream of seeing the hands of time floating on wrists failed and everybody remained convinced it was impossible to realize. That is why I can say with pride that the Quinting manufacture leapt into a new era in watchmaking history by making this dream come true.

Five engineers pooled their knowledge; millions of dollars were invested throughout 7 years of research and development. The result was that we managed to craft the first and only 100% transparent chronograph in the world. We were able to create our own identity as a manufacturer, that is impossible to imitate or to copy.

As true luxury objects, Quinting watches appeal to dreamers who are not looking for what they need but for what they desire. Besides providing highly innovative and exceptional products, we provide a mystery, the mystery of transparency, the mystery of Quinting.

“The only thing anyone should fight for is Peace”

Pascal Berclaz
President of Quinting
Peace watch maker

Today Quinting throws a challenge to wars and terrorism by creating the Dove of Geneva. A watch symbolizing that the only thing anyone should fight for is peace and democracy's job is to spread the message of peace around the world and unite peace states.

Combining high quality workmanship and peacemaking initiative, Quinting wants to do its bit to promote peace around the world beginning with the man who wears Quinting for peace.

The Three Symbols of the Dove of Geneva

First symbol

Peace is the only thing that is worth working at for 59 minutes to have one minute of peace per hour. It is for this reason that we have put two doves in the watch, one turning at the speed of the minute hand and the other at the speed of the hour hand. These doves fight for 59 minutes to become perfectly superposed for only one minute of every hour thus symbolizing Peace.

Second symbol

Peace is the work of democracies. We have created this watch in a limited collection of 192 unique pieces, equal to the number of countries in the UN. This represents for each country in the UN that there is only ONE in the world, and only one exists. On each watch casing is a number which references the date of the entry of a country into the UN.

Third symbol

When we look at this transparent watch, through the first symbol, we can see the person who wears the watch. The transparency of this watch symbolizes that the person who wears it is the actor of peace but not the symbols or principles. This piece will be a daily reminder of these symbols to the one who wears it and that he or she can be the builder of a better humanity.

Speech of Pascal Berclaz to the Swiss Presidents

Mister President, Ladies and Gentlemen,

The UN's ambassadors and economy club of Geneva has chosen an exceptional symbol to offer you. That symbol, Mister President, is the famous Dove of Geneva.

It is an honor for Quinting watch manufacture to offer you, Mister President, the limited edition mysterious Quinting chronograph the "Dove of Geneva."

Mister President, when you have this watch on your wrist, you will see that flying in the center are two doves. One turns at the speed of the minutes and the other at the speed of the hours. One minute per hour the two doves form one perfect dove.

This symbolizes that one minute of peace is worth 59 minutes fighting.

This mechanical masterpiece has been produced in a limited edition of 192 pieces, representing the number of the countries in the UN, therefore the Dove of Geneva symbolizes that democracy is necessary to build peace.

Mister President, not only is the Dove of Geneva a mysterious Quinting chronograph that fights for 59 minutes for a minute of peace, but, Mister President, you will see when wearing this watch that it is 100% transparent. Its unique transparency is due to the original sapphire movement it hosts, instead of a traditional metal movement.

Meaning mister President, that each time you look at the time behind the hands of the Dove of Geneva, you will see that you, the man who wears this watch, is a builder of peace.

Vladimir Putin,
President of Russia from 2000 to 2008

Sepp Blatter,

President of FIFA

In June 2010, Mr. Sepp Blatter, president of FIFA, became an owner of a Quinting watch. This man, who possesses absolute power in the world of football, chose a strong symbol to launch the World Cup: The Dove of Football.”

Why this choice? Under the presidency of Mr. Joseph Sepp Blatter, FIFA defined its priorities. They wanted to develop governance and propose transparency in the world of football. This transparency in the organization of encounters within the world of football allows synchronization of the calendar, managing relationships between federations and public authorities, and controlling the clubs and their influence or continuing to bring particular attention to the trading of players.

With its 100% transparent mechanism, a Quinting watch is the perfect vehicle for this new ethic at FIFA. For the past 10 years Quinting has symbolized the universe of transparency and perfection throughout its sapphire movements, and continue to do so. For this watch manufacture, being transparent is no longer just an ideal to attain but an everyday philosophy because Quinting watches all possess this particularity, unique in the world; being made with a totally transparent Quinting movement.

Therefore, in 2010, the two Swiss natives, Pascal Berclaz, president of Quinting, and Joseph Sepp Blatter, decided to play together in the World Cup of transparency.

Just as the World Cup offers a chance for the winning team to enter into the exclusive club of victors, a Quinting watch opens the door of the club of Presidents to Mr. Sepp Blatter.

Sheikh Khalifa bin Salman al Khalifa, Prime minister of Bahrain

During Bahrain's International Fair, 6 Dove of Geneva chronographs, intended for the 6 countries of Middle East that are part of the United Nations, were showcased in the middle of central alley of Hall 1.

The 6 countries and their numbers are the following: Saudi Arabia (18), Kuwait (113), Bahrain (129), Qatar (131), Oman (132), and the United Arab Emirates (133).

At the press conference devoted to the opening of the exhibition, Pascal Berclaz, President of Quinting, explained the three symbols of the Dove of Geneva.

This unique piece drew the attention of the Prime Minister of Bahrain who was interested in the concept and innovative technology.

Amazed by these state-of-the-art timepieces, the Sheikh Khalifa bin Salman Al Khalifa congratulated the President of Quinting for inventing such a technical marvel.

Abdelaziz Bouteflika,

President of Algeria

"... The UN is still to us the organization capable of registering our fears and that is trying to find the right answers to them. This organization has survived all the vicissitudes of the international community and no one can question the undeniable services it has given to world peace."

Abdelaziz Bouteflika

On the 2nd of June, 2005, the "peace watchmaker," Pascal Berclaz, president of Quinting, put a limited edition "Dove of Geneva" chronograph around Abdelaziz Bouteflika, the Algerian President's wrist.

He succeeded in re-establishing civil peace and security in his country. Offered by the Swiss-Algerian Chamber of Commerce and Industry during the opening of the Swiss stand of the 38th Algerian International Fair, which is the most important annual economic event in Algeria. Quinting's "Dove of Geneva" chronograph was not chosen by chance. It is the only Swiss watch that best communicates to the whole world its origin country's values, a country known worldwide for its cutting edge technology in the watch making industry, a country that positions itself in the middle of international negotiations and human rights promotions. It is for this reason that since 2003, Swiss presidents proudly wear their "Dove of Geneva" which transform on the government's wrists into "Swiss Doves."

The lady Dove

The Lady Dove

Quinting's chronograph, the Dove of Geneva, became the watch of Presidents working for peace. However, presidents and peacemakers are not only men, so now Quinting is pleased to announce the arrival of the Lady Dove of Geneva, the peace watch for women. This feminine and truly exquisite watch will be released in a limited edition of 192 timepieces, the number corresponding to the member countries of the United Nations. Seen through the round white diamond bezel of this lovely Cyclone watch, two white doves fly inside the transparent sapphire movement.

Initiating peace is an enormous challenge, but peace is not just the absence of war; it is a state of mind, built of health, well-being, harmony, calm and tranquility. The dove has been a bearer of peace since ancient times. Quinting wants the peace givers of today, men and women alike, to own a symbol that represents the role of peacemakers in society today.

Peace is the result of so many acts, large and small. It begins with the education of children, which lays the foundation of societal values and is expressed in kindness, charity, hard work, patience and a sense of purpose. A woman may choose the traditional path of wife, mother and caregiver, or choose to have a career that helps reshape the world... or today, she may even choose to do both.

The white dove on the sapphire disc of the minute hand represents every waking minute of her life, raising her children and/or working for a better future, calling for reconciliation and for human rights, fighting against poverty and denouncing every form of child abuse. She may battle for access to land and clean water, or organize vigils and document the atrocities of war. Whether mother, caregiver, actress, lawyer, poet, scientist or president, women play a major part in building and promoting peace, within their society, every hour of their lives. The Quinting "Lady Dove of Geneva": her watch, her time.
